Vivian “Kelly” Chen

*Contribution to Children, World Peace, and/or Human Rights
2004 JCI TOYP Honoree*

Nominated by: JCI Hong Kong

Vivian “Kelly” Chen, was born September 13, 1973, in Hong Kong. While working in the Hong Kong's entertainment business for nine years, she has become a respected figure and role model in Chinese communities around the world. Kelly Chen has released 55 albums into Cantonese, Mandarin and Japanese and has received more than 200 music awards throughout Aria. She has also starred in 13 movies and was the voice behind three animated cartoon characters, including Disney's Mulan.

Kelly Chen has focused not only on her movie and acting career, but also in several charitable endeavors, many of which advocate the wellbeing of children, especially in the area of education. The Kelly Chen Children Education Fund (KCCEF) was established in April 2002 to advance children's issues and increase public awareness toward children's welfare.

KCCEF has provided educational subsidies, promoted intelligence development and established two primary schools in Guizhou, the poorest province in Mainland China. In addition to granting educational subsidies for tuitions fees, books and traveling allowances to develop children's intelligence, KCCEF is promoting art and sports-related extracurricular activities. Through her actions and through KCCEF, Kelly Chen, is contributing to improve countless children's lives.

The Outstanding Young Persons of the World (TOYP) Program serves to formally recognize young people who excel in their chosen fields and exemplify the best attributes of the world's young people. By recognizing these young people, JCI encourages them and others to seek excellence and serve others. Thus, JCI contributes to prepare better leaders, who will create better societies.

Honorees selected in past years have represented the heights of progress in numerous human endeavors. Many have gone on to even greater achievements. All have continued to serve humanity in a great variety of ways.
